

July 26, 1940

Dearest Liline,

Your most welcome letters and cards fill my constitution with determination to follow the straight and narrow path. Even when the ~~sea~~ mightiest of storms try to lead me astray your smile shines ~~then~~ thru the densest of fog caused by trouble and disappointments and light the way for me to see and understand truth and beauty in it. For you I have a pre-actual desire to be with and do everything in the world to repay the kindness you have shown me and my friends.

The wind is blowing today like it usually blows before a storm. When I get a day off Logan will be the sin of me and "Henry" because we will never be content without you along with us.

Liline thanks a million for all the trouble you go to to make things convenient for me and "Henry"; also, thanks for your financial assets until better paid.

When one is always busy he never looks happier or prouder because an idle mind is the Devil's work shop. I try to keep busy, but don't do as good a job as you.

I am overflowing with joy to know that you had a good ride to Tucson Monday but it isn't any better than you deserve because you always deserve the best.

It is time for work again so I will sign off with lots of love to you. Erlene I am proud of you and all the things you are and wish to me. Thanks for your interest in me.

Faithfully and lovingly yours,
Edmond.

W. L. Whipple
Tooele, Utah

Miss Erlene Atkinson
79 West 4th South
Logan, Utah