Dearest Clark,

Just a few words to let you know that I arrived home safe and sound. Marvin was at Stanley's apartment when I got there. He walked to school with Dot so he wouldn't have been ready when I was.

In the way home we looked for some tomatoes, It took us three hours to find three su.

because the season is too wet for them to ripen.

We pulled into Toole
at 2:30, just time enough to change clothes then rusele at the smelter. Morin got on the after noon shift but he (the personnel manager) told me to come back to my old job on Grave yard.

It was three times as hard to take as the Cat job but I Am still living.

Celine dear I appreciate - more than you will ever realize the things you ~~are~~ do for me.

Thanks!!! Thanks!!! Thanks!!!! for everything.

Faithfully and Forever yours
Le Grand
