

Thanks, Thanks, Thanks! for the swell box you sent, I want you to know that it was plenty swell, everything was so good! You shouldn't do things like that but now that you ~~sent~~ sent the wonderful package I still want you to know that I think there is none better than you.

I got to drive the Cot. 4 hours last night after work on a trial run.
The ~~thing~~ looked O.K. to me in the dark but I still don't know if I can do the work the way the fellows want it, but I done my best.

The snow still seems to be a ~~dream~~ dream or something. Folks are comeing in from all directions with the big snow stories, out here there is none & the days are like an ideal ~~day~~ day.

Trailers & tents are springing up like they did in early days in California.
I can count 4 or 5 now over every day now they there is about 20 or 25.

Everyone is O.K. as far as colds is concerned, and are lots better natured than we were a week ago.

I got a letter from home yesterday Dad said he was still working at the smelter and ~~not~~ an inch of snow was on the ground.

Thanks! Thanks! dear for being so good to me. I hope I can be good enough for you some day.

Faithfully and lovingly,
Edward
