Dear Elaine,

I do with all the power that is in me thank you for such splendid Birthday Present. The cake and everything else, etc. surely ~~is~~ reminds me of the good old days in Logan & Dayton. A year ago especially when "Henry" was running around with everything that went with it.

Something like that Box certainly takes the gloom out of the rainy old weather. Monday Afternoon, Tuesday & Wednesday all day there was a drizzle drizzle, just enough to get a fellow all wet within a few blocks, but not enough to really amount up. It certainly was good to see Companion come walking in with his arms full of mail that day - last Wednesday 8:30 A.M.

Thanks a million sweetheart for the shirt!

We are still moving a little at least
up here because we held 4 cottage meetings
already this week and have another scheduled for Friday. Next week we have 5 dates already, maybe we will be able to do some good if it is the right time for the good to be done.

It certainly does my old soul good to be in a meeting when we stake out the comparisons between our Church and the church the folks at a cottage meeting belong. We show them our belief along to the side of theirs
and invariably they say, "That is what I have believed all my life, but this is the first time
the church I belonged to didn't correspond to ^{my new}
my way of thinking."

Yes, it is the only correct and logical
way for an individual to believe, who reasons
through things a little for themselves.

Many folks ~~are~~ marvel that we invite them to weigh what we have to offer with what ever else there is available. They are used to hearing one side from the Ministers before because the ministers were afraid that they would find that they didn't have anything to offer.

It certainly does my old soul good to watch the expression on a persons face when we tell them that we have nothing to sell or that we are seeking for nothing but that we have something for them that is free. It is hard for them to get that much through their head.

At any rate it is good to be an Ambassador of truth, because of the feeling that if we are faithful and true to our calling we will be helped in time of need.

May the Lord help you in your honest endeavor to do what is good & true and right.
He will because he is bound when you keep his commandments.

Thanks again from Elder Millett and from the bottom of my heart.

Faithful and lovingly forever,
Elder LeGrand.
