

Tuesday evening
~~Monday evening~~

Wellow Dear Wife & Son -

Have you found enough to keep me busy for two days I was about to call this Monday & the boys in the Barracks tell me that its Tuesday. It seems like yesterday that I went to Church.

Well if they keep a fellow busy enough we are lots happier. We arose at 6:00 & its now 21:00 and we've had plenty to do all the time. 45 minutes 30 for supper and all that goes with it.

This evening while in show line I found time enough to read your letter. The one that told me that the boy just got in the flour bin. Now I suppose he gets the sieve every day just to keep him out of mischief.

Say I just got to thinking that I never told you the reason why I was a little bit good to you. You know that I had to live with you so I just did a few little jobs to keep you in good mood — Any one would do a thing like that. Its just like giving a dollar bill for a ten dollar bill — even a knot head like me caught on to that little score in a hurry —

Did I tell you that we had a little party this night? What they call a G.I. Party. Someone dropped a live cigarett in the can — (A gallon can that's hung on the side of the door to catch gum wrappers etc.) when we fell out after dinner. As a Peanelty we G.I. the Barracks

All the foot lockers went outside - All the single bunks hung on the ceiling. Water - Soap - Brooms - Mops - Lots of fellows and lots of sweat - for about two hours.
There was soap & water ankle deep on this floor - This old board floor shines bright as a Million Dollar bill - ~~Even~~ Nearly as bright as the boy when he he's in the magazine rack -

Now time flies - It's now just 1/2 hour before bedtime - I have to do the regular routine of shave - shower - shine my shoes wash a pair of wool socks - and 5 other things.

Are you able to get soap up there as yet? If you are in need of a few bars I might be able to get hold of a few 3 or 4 bars per week - I bought a bar of P4 H - for a nickel last week - I think I could arrange to get 2 or 5 if you need it.

Well tonight is tonight &
It's time to sign off for now
So "Smile damn you Smile!" -

Yours truly,
Just Mc
Leland
