Dear Wife -

Your letter arrived, the one that you wrote Sunday evening - you probably wondering what the heck happened when you didn't get a call through from me - Monday I put a call through & they went to work on it right away. I put a call through shortly after six, & it went right in - by 7:00 they called

14 June 1945

It is another day gone about for good. I was on the firing line from 7:00 to 19:00. After we came in I ate Super I opened a box of cookies and box of candies that I received from you. Thanks a million

It sure did my old soul good to receive a box of home made Chocolate chip cookies.

I can think of only one thing that would be better and that would be to drop in just when a big batch of cookies were coming out of the oven or when you was building a big bowl full of candy.

We have been having a regular Mad house around here this night - Everyone cleaning their rifles - lining up to ~~also~~ sign the pay roll - changing laundry or Pillow Cases - Yo yo yo yo -

Well we work hard enough this week we might have a half day Sat -

off again but that is a fantastic idea for this week I am thinking.

Well it is about time to knock off for this night so will say so long and Thanka another million for the box of cookies.

Sweet dreams & so long Sweetheart.

Smile
Leland.

P.S. Tell Mom to smile & keep smiling till I have time to write.
