

Sunday Morning

Dear Wife & Son -

Now for a short line from this Part of the Lords vineyard. Sunday is the best day of Army life so far any. up till now we have had every ~~day~~ saturday off. Lots of the Companies have been on the firing line and in other places and training to receive.

By now I suppose you are back in Dayton with your mother and folks. As yet I havent received mail that you have written in Dayton.
Since I received two from Logan.

The mail must not be very regular now days for some reason but it is a lot ~~more~~ a better service than our Grand Parents had when they were our age - Well a few years back when the Mormon Br. left Missouri they did well to hear from their folks once or twice in the whole journey or whole time they were in the service.

Now days mail travels around the world lots faster than that.

From the news we have been receiving ~~at~~ over the radio for the Past few days this business of war with Japan may come to a close before to long if they accept the ~~the~~ Surrender deal they received.
Otherwise it may cost much more time and every thing else that is ... tied up in this business of War.

Yes, this Sunday business in the army is a good deal so far as the things that go with Army life is concerned. But at the very best this Army life is plenty rough.

And in Texas with this weather things are lots hotter. When I think of what goes on back at camp I get the ugliest feeling so I'd best forget about the deal now that it is Sunday and think along the line of the Gospel and the price our fathers paid that we might have what we have. Yes, a light that shines in the darkness. What a great day this will be ~~that~~ ^{when} everyone that lives on this earth will believe in the Gospel that Christ Taught when he lived and walked on the earth.

Well it is nearly Church time so I'll bring this short line to a close. Gather the boy up in your arms and give him a big hug and kiss for this plain old ordinary fellow who is his dad. One of these days I'll be able to do the job for myself but while I am out in this business will you be sure that the job is done every day for me, O.S., Thanks muchly. So long my sweetheart.
All kinds of love and best wishes for my family this day -

Remember Smile!
