

Albany, Oregon
Saturday evening.

Dear Walter,

How is Dad's big boy this evening? By now you are no doubt in bed and enjoying a big sleep. That is a good place for fellows. How your dad wishes that he was home in bed with you and your mother.

As it is I am out in this beautiful land where thousands of soldiers are because of no idea of their own because most of them would be home with their boys and girls if they had their say -

May the Lord Grant that you never get mixed up in a mess like this. Nothing to do to keep a fellows mind busy; and a fellow like me lets his mind travel around the world plenty often but it ~~all~~ always stops in the Rocky mountains. Right where my son and wife is.

Well boy take care of yourself and your mother.

have your mother help you drop this nicker in your bank - Love to you & your Mom.
Dad -
