

21 Jan 1946

My Darling family,

This is the letter I have been waiting to write for a long time from this section of the world. Since 11th Nov 1945 in fact because that is the day that I ~~left~~ that land in this Prison - Now we have travel. ing orders - to leave some time on the morrow - 22 Jan - We are sched- uled to go to Yokohama - We near Tokyo - Some 200 or 300 miles from here - From here on out we'll have a new address - I don't know it for sure but from all I can hear and gather it will be something like

This -
Pvt. W. L. Whipple 39943825
3186 Signal Corps - APO 503
B. P. M. San Francisco, Calif -

Yes, it sounds pretty good to move from this Area. These 4 walls look pretty dull - And they trapped the rats so not even the rats are around any more to more the ~~monotony~~ dullness -

I have heard lots of good rumors this day but they are too good to be true so I am not building my hopes too high.

Here is a few Pictures that you might be interested in - Two of Yours truly - And two Post Cards -

Well its time to get busy But Remember My Dear I love you - Keep Smiling - Your Husband
